From the Desk of Father Ed:

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue in the season of summer we are reminded of the necessity for some down time; a time to rest, perhaps by taking a vacation. In our Gospel today we hear how so many people were coming to Jesus and His Apostles “and they had no opportunity even to eat.” Jesus invited his Apostles to “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” Jesus taught his Apostles the importance of finding a time and place to retreat from their ministry and to get some rest.

We too need to get away and rest and recharge so that we can be more effective at our vocation in life and work out God’s plan for our salvation. Often the warm summer weather is an opportune time for us to take a break.

Jesus invites us to rest. Each Sunday we gather around the Banquet of the Eucharist as sons and daughters of the Father. One of the Ten Commandments requires us to keep the Lord’s Day holy. We do this by attending Mass on Sunday and the Holy Days of Obligation but also by keeping the day as a day of rest. We try to abstain from unnecessary work on Sundays and give the day to our Lord in thanks for all that He has done and continues to do for us.

Jesus invites us to come away with him to a deserted place and rest awhile. This is also an invitation to find that place of silence and solitude where we can be alone with the Lord in prayer. Each Monday night at 7:30pm in our church we have a Holy Hour with Benediction. Our Lord is present in the Eucharist and it is a time where we can adore Him and enter into that rest where He refreshes us by His grace, restores us, strengthens us, and gives us his peace.

Summer is also a time where perhaps our schedule will allow us to attend daily Mass. Every day (Monday –Saturday) we celebrate the Holy Mass at 8:00 AM. There is no greater gift than to receive our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist and the closest we can be to Him while on the face of the earth. After each morning Mass we pray the rosary; the prayer our Blessed Mother pleads for us to pray. It is the prayer that brings us her motherly protection, intercession, and help. She brings us to her Son, so that one day we can enter into His promised eternal rest.

Our Lady Queen of Peace pray for us,
Father Ed
Administrator

Parish Life:

A special thanks to the Women and Mens Clubs who will be organizing a parish picnic this year on Sunday, September 20th after the 11:00 AM Mass; mark your calendars.

Our seminarian, Joseph Boykow, after his 6-week summer assignment here at Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish will be leaving on Sunday, July 26. After each of the Masses on Sunday, July 26 we will be having “Coffee And” to say farewell to Joseph. Please continue to pray for him and all our seminarians.

The oil sanctuary lamp that was located next to the tabernacle has been replaced with a wax candle. The new wax sanctuary lamp burns for approximately one week. Memorials for your deceased loved ones are now available. The cost of the Sanctuary Lamp Memorial is $10 for the week and will be published in the bulletin. For more information please call the parish office.

Our central air conditioning system for the parish center is no longer working. We had an inspection performed on the unit and discovered that the whole system is antiquated and beyond repair. The estimated cost for the air conditioning replacement is $5,500. Please be generous in supporting your parish.
Thankyou.

Catechism of the Catholic Church:

THE THIRD COMMANDMENT

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work; but the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; in it you shall not do any work.

2168 The third commandment of the Decalogue recalls the holiness of the sabbath: “The seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD.”

2169 *In speaking of the sabbath Scripture recalls creation: “For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.”*⁹³ (2057)

2172 *God’s action is the model for human action. If God “rested and was refreshed” on the seventh day, man too ought to “rest” and should let others, especially the poor, “be refreshed.”*⁹⁶ *The sabbath brings everyday work to a halt and provides a respite. It is a day of protest against the servitude of work and the worship of money.*⁹⁷ (2184)

2174 *Jesus rose from the dead “on the first day of the week.”*¹⁰⁴ Because it is the “first day,” the day of Christ’s Resurrection recalls the first creation. Because it is the “eighth day” following the sabbath,¹⁰⁵ it symbolizes the new creation ushered in by Christ’s Resurrection. For Christians it has become the first of all days, the first of all feasts, the Lord’s Day (he kuriake hemera, dies dominica)—Sunday: (638, 349)

2181 The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor.¹¹⁹ Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin.

2185 On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God, the joy proper to the Lord’s Day, the performance of the works of mercy, and the appropriate relaxation of mind and body...

2186 ...Sunday is traditionally consecrated by Christian piety to good works and humble service of the sick, the infirm, and the elderly. Christians will also sanctify Sunday by devoting time and care to their families and relatives, often difficult to do on other days of the week. Sunday is a time for reflection, silence, cultivation of the mind, and meditation which furthers the growth of the Christian interior life.

Second Collection:

As per the request of our Bishop, a second collection will be taken up after all the Masses on Saturday and Sunday, July 25th & 26th. The collection will be a special combined collection for: The Catholic Communications Campaign, Catholic University of America, and The Black and Indian Mission Collection. Thank you for your generosity.

Collections:

July 11 & 12: $3,900

Envelopes Mailed: 219

Envelopes Received: 127

If you are not already doing so, please use your envelopes each week. Only contributions in your numbered envelope are recorded for documentation required by the IRS. Please contact the parish office if you are not receiving envelopes.

Memorials:

Week of July 19:
Sanctuary Lamp burns for:
Mark Brigham

Below is an excerpt from Bishop Serratelli's letter of July 6:

The Pope has urged us to pray for an increased awareness of the "drama of persecuted Christians in our day," for religious freedom as an "inalienable human right" and for the "end to this unacceptable crime." In response to our Holy Father's urgent request and united with him in concern for all those suffering religious persecution, I am designating this August as a diocesan-wide Month of Prayer for Those Suffering Religious Persecution.

I invite all pastors and religious superiors to promote this intention. The Prayer for Those Suffering Religious Persecution should be prayed together at all Masses (before or after Mass, or after the Post-Communion Prayer and before the Final Blessing and Dismissal).

In addition, pastors and religious superiors may, if they wish, add any of the following:

1. Petitions for Persecuted Christians in the Prayers of the Faithful at Mass.
2. Holy Mass using the liturgical texts designated "For Persecuted Christians" found in the Roman Missal on any day other than on a Sunday or Solemnity.
3. A Holy Hour with Scripture Readings, Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction for this specific intention.
4. An invitation to undertake some personal acts of prayer, sacrifice and charity for our suffering brothers and sisters.

These are only a few ways to raise our awareness and support of our brothers and sisters around the world. It is my hope that our united efforts, in both prayer and action, will strengthen those who suffer persecution and move the hearts of those who oppress them to embrace a life of peace. As St. Peter Eymard once said, "Have confidence in prayer. It is the unfailing power which God has given us."

Invoking God's blessing on all the faithful, religious and clergy of our diocese, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ
Most Reverend Arthur J. Serratelli, S.T.D., S.S.L., D.D.

Bishop of Paterson
